Ernie Meyer shared the experiences as guests at the Government House investiture of QSM's for himself and Maureen.

5 guests are allocated to each recipient, so they were able to have 10 family members present for the occasion.

Congratulations to Shirley Grayson's niece who won a silver medal at the World Kayaking Championships.

Guest Speaker Deborah Fletcher, the Club RYLA attendee this year, was introduced by Paul Jenner. Deborah is Auckland based and teaches Dance.

Deborah was one of 15 delegates from Auckland and Northland who attended this year's RYLA event that was conducted via Zoom.

Deborah said that they broke off into smaller groups, to better connect, and arranged a dinner together in Newmarket to experience some face time.

One of the highlights was a group project to form an NGO Prototype of an Online Market Place for Art and Trade services. The 5-hour project produced some high-quality work that proved very satisfying.

Deborah commented that a younger person can be demoralised by the state of the world and RYLA enabled the sharing with people experiencing the same feelings.

Also sharing of past RYLA attendees' their current experiences, including Brain Research and work into the community.

They were particularly impressed with Inspirational Guest speaker Cam Calkoen, who has spoken at District conference.

A quote from Cam, "Life is what we make it and the values needed to achieve awesomeness are simple "" we need to believe, and in doing so, leave no stone unturned. My offerings help you identify these unturned stones "" in other words, I inspire others to dream big and achieve more!"

Deborah said the Group will continue to arrange outings together in the future.

Bruce Murdoch thanked Deborah for her address and commented that he was sure she would take the experience to provide for Youth Leadership in her area of endeavour.

Peter Garnett presented Deborah with a RYLA certificate and reminded her that she was now a member of the RYLA International Alumni and could take advantage of connecting with RYLA Alumni worldwide.
